

The MMXII Classical Literacy Exam

In the year 2012, almost 1,200 students participated in the Third Annual Classical Literacy Exam. These students were from 44 schools in 19 states across the United States and also from Australia.

During the first week of February, these 1,200 students took the Classical Literacy Exam in their respective schools. These schools were public schools, private schools, charter schools, and homeschools.

Below is the breakdown of awards for each level of the 2012 Classical Literacy Exam. Each place is determined by the correct number of answers out of fifty. The students who achieved a Perfect score in the Introductory exam were awarded purple ribbons. A Perfect score in Levels I-III was recognized with a Perfect medal, and a Gold score in Levels I-III was recognized with a Gold medal. Students received certificates for all award levels.
