

Classical Literacy Exam - Practice matching questions

Reminders: 1) On the actual CLE exam no list is provided nor is one to be used; 2) One taking the Level III exam must know the Level II and Level I lists; one taking the Level II exam must know the Level I list; the Level I list already includes the Introductory List.

Introductory Level

Pegasus	Zeus	Spartacus	Romulus	Athena
Arachne	Ares	Hermes	Odysseus	Hades
Cronus	Theseus	Perseus	Nike	Tantalus
Orpheus	Cerberus	Charon	Atlas	Demeter
Hestia	Hector	Paris	Persephone	Poseidon

- _____ 1. The three-headed dog of the Underworld
- _____ 2. The slayer of Medusa
- _____ 3. The slayer of the Minotaur
- _____ 4. Abducted Helen from Sparta
- _____ 5. The goddess of the hearth
- _____ 6. Athena turned her into a spider
- _____ 7. The winged deity of victory
- _____ 8. The ferryman over the river Styx
- _____ 9. The daughter of Demeter and wife of Hades
- _____ 10. Greek god of earthquakes, horses and the sea

Level I

fortuitous	omniscient	lapsus linguae	alter ego aegis	ex officio	magnanimous	sedentary
sub rosa	status quo	sine qua non	persona non grata mea culpa	patrician	alpha and omega	antebellum
e.g.	i.e.	post mortem	mores

- _____ 1. The customs of a society
- _____ 2. All knowing
- _____ 3. The existing state of affairs
- _____ 4. Generous
- _____ 5. Secretly
- _____ 6. For the sake of an example
- _____ 7. A slip of the tongue
- _____ 8. Something necessary
- _____ 9. Accidental
- _____ 10. A shield made of goat hide – thus, means “protection”

Level II

augury	festina lente	cf.	saturnine	veritas mercurial	ne plus ultra	non sequitur	onus probandi	errata interregnum	sinecure	quorum	placebo	otiose
fiat	corpus delicti	ibid.	ca.	sui generis
in vitro	prima facie	corrigena	habeas corpus	per se

- _____ 1. A job without any responsibility
_____ 2. In the same place
_____ 3. Of its own kind
_____ 4. Something that does not follow logically
_____ 5. The burden of proof
_____ 6. Gloomy
_____ 7. Changeable
_____ 8. At first glance
_____ 9. An arbitrary command
_____ 10. Hurry slowly, a favorite saying of Augustus

Level III

Livy	Catullus	Alcibiades	Cicero	Maecenas
Marcus Aurelius	Euclid	Aeschylus	Sophocles	Euripides
Parmenides	Heraclitus	Zeno	Pythagoras	Pindar
Thales	Solon	Quintilian	Pericles	Martial
Vergil	Horace	Hesiod	Herodotus	Ovid

- _____ 1. The literary patron of Horace and Vergil _____ 2. Famously said: Being is, not being is not.
_____ 3. Famously said: You can't put your foot in the same river twice.
_____ 4. Believed that all things were made up of numbers
_____ 5. Wrote the Oresteia
_____ 6. Emperor whose Meditations espouse stoic philosophy _____ 7. Wrote Antigone, Oedipus at Colonus, and Oedipus the King
_____ 8. Most famous orator of ancient Rome
_____ 9. Poet who wrote with exquisite pain of his Lesbia _____ 10. Philosopher who believed that all things were made of water.